

SHIPPING POLICY

Our shipping policy is easy, breezy, lemon-squeezy because we ship it and you get it.

We do, however, understand ship happens sometimes and things don't always go as planned. Try not to worry—we've got you covered. What we should say is this: "we ship it and stop at nothing until you get it."

We only ship domestically and all of our orders are shipped by the next business day.

Our packages are equipped with tracking upon request and projected to be received in 3-5 business days.

If your order is, for some reason, not received within 7 business days...let us know and we'll deep dive to find out why. Then, we'll make it right.

That's all there is to it.

PRIVACY POLICY

Our privacy policy is even better than our shipping.

We're privately owned and operated.

We respect you.

And your information.

We might ask for your email address to send you an order update or holiday wishes but nothing too overbearing or invasive. We don't keep your phone number because who calls anymore, anyway? And, we definitely don't care if you live with a water view or on a cul-de-sac.

We'll never sell your information or disclose it to another party.

And that's our promise. Our Privacy Policy Promise.
